CHAPTER 22.

AN ACT to amend subsection (3) of section 41.16 of the statutes, relating to tax levies for vocational schools.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (3) of section 41.16 of the statutes is amended to read: (41.16) (3) The rate of tax levied for the purposes of sections 41.13 to 41.21, inclusive, in any town, village or city shall not in any one year exceed * * * one and one-half mills for the maintenance of all schools created under said sections. Whenever the local board of industrial education in any city of the first class shall deem it necessary to erect new buildings, or to make additions to old buildings, or to purchase sites for such schools or additions to old sites, and a natatorium or natatoria in connection therewith, whenever directed by a resolution of the common council to erect a natatorium or natatoria as a part of such building or buildings, said board may, by a majority vote of the members thereof, send a communication to the common council of such city, stating the amount of funds needed for any of said purposes, or any two or more of said purposes combined, requesting said common council to issue vocational school bonds for any of said purposes, or any two or more of said purposes combined, and thereafter said common council may, in its discretion, cause said vocational school bonds to be issued for any of said purposes or any two or more of said purposes combined, in the same manner as other bonds are issued in such city, except that such bonds need not be submitted to a vote of the people unless the petition of the voters authorized in subsection 7 of section 943 of the statutes shall be filed as therein provided. Whenever said bonds are issued for any two of said purposes combined, the local board of industrial education may apply the proceeds of the same to any of the purposes for which said bonds were issued in any proportion it deems necessary; provided, that whenever a natatorium or natatoria shall be erected in connection therewith as herein provided, the maintenance cost of such natatorium or natatoria shall be paid by the local board of industrial education and the city in such proportions as shall be agreed upon by the common council and the local board of industrial education, or if they cannot agree then each shall pay fifty per cent thereof. The comptroller of such city shall annually set aside, out of any taxes collected in such city for an industrial education fund, a sufficient sum to pay the principal and interest which may become due on any of said bonds in the year for which such taxes are collected; provided, that if the local board of industrial education shall refuse or neglect to report according to law a sufficient amount of money required by it for the next fiscal year to pay the principal and interest on said bonds each year, the common council of such city shall levy a sufficient tax for such purpose. It shall not be necessary for such city to comply with the provisions of sections 925q—160 to 925q—162, inclusive, of the statutes in making the first two of such bond issues, but all subsequent bond issues shall be subject to the provisions of said sections of the statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved June 3, 1920.

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to create a new paragraph of subsection (17) of section 20.17 of the statutes, relating to the Industrial Home for Women, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is added to subsection (17) of section 20.17 of the statutes a new paragraph to be numbered and to read: (20.17) (17) (g) On July 1, 1920, not to exceed twenty-two thousand dollars, for carrying out the various provisions and purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection; this additional appropriation may be used for any one or more or for all of the purposes of said paragraphs; and in case any saving is effected in any allotment or allotments made by paragraphs (c) or (d), such saving may be transferred to any other allotment or allotments of either paragraph.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1920.
