Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill contains one provision that relates to the Department of Health and Family Services. This provision would eliminate coverage under the state unemployment insurance law for services provided to a recipient of medical assistance by an individual who is not an employee of a home health agency if the service is: (a) private duty and intermittent nursing service provided by a nurse in independent practice or by an independent nurse practitioner; or (b) respiratory care service for ventilator-dependent individuals by a provider in independent practice.

This provision has already been enacted into law as part of 2001 Wisconsin Act 35.
