Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

This bill would substantially rewrite the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) as it relates to Secured Transactions. While the bill would present some new regulatory concerns for the department's customers (consumers, farmers and businesses) the bill has no direct effect on the department's programs or financial commitments.

This legislation adopts the Model Uniform Commercial Code Article 9 (Chapter 409, Wis. Stats.) provisions with regard to secured transactions. Since the Department does not have any regulatory or enforcement authority over Article 9 provisions, there is no fiscal impact.
