AB 52: Changing the Name of a Minor

Testimony before the Senate Judiciary, Corrections Privacy Committee

August 26, 2003

Chairperson Zien and members of the committee, thank you for the opportunity to testify on this proposal.

This bill allows a single parent to change the name of a minor under the age of 14 with greater ease than under current law. Currently, both parents must petition for a name change unless the rights of one parent have been legally terminated. A judge has no discretion in ordering the name change unless both parents file the petition, even if one parent has clearly abandoned the child.

This legislation was prompted by a case I observed while shadowing Judge Patrick Snyder of Waukesha County Circuit Court for a day during the summer of 1997. A woman appeared before him asking permission to change her child's last name. Although she did not know the whereabouts of the father and had no contact with him for a considerable length of time, current law did not allow Judge Snyder to grant the name change.

According to Judge Snyder, this situation arises frequently. In the situation described, the first step towards changing the child's last name is initiating a Termination of Parental Rights proceeding (TPR). However, because this is often a costly and time-consuming process, many parents are discouraged from pursuing this option.

I believe it is appropriate to allow a single parent to change the child's name if the other parent has effectively abandoned the child and cannot be found. Therefore, I am proposing this legislation to do the following:

- Allow a single parent to petition for a name change if he or she shows proof that an attempt has been made by mail and by published notice to inform the absent parent of the petition.
- Require the parent petitioning for the name change to provide an affidavit showing that a reasonable attempt was made to locate the absent parent.
- Provide for judicial discretion to grant the name change if the absent parent does not appear to answer the petition.

- If the absent parent appears at the hearing or otherwise answers the petition, the court shall not grant the name change unless the responding parent agrees.

With these safeguards, the bill allows a single parent to petition for a name change while providing the absent parent the opportunity to participate in this decision if he or she so desires. Therefore, the rights of both parents are preserved.

This same legislation (1999 AB 62 & 2001 AB 222) passed the Assembly on votes of 92-5 in 1999 and 94-0 in 2001. However, in both cases, the session ended before action took place in the Senate. In June, the Assembly passed AB 52 on a voice vote.

This legislation has strong bipartisan support, as well as the endorsement of judges. I urge your support of this legislation.

Thank you.
