Subject Local government online bidding procedures

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Currently, when contractors submit bids to the Department of Administration on state public works projects those bids do not include information on the rates of pay those contractors will pay their workers.

Since the Department of Workforce Development will not be receiving any wage rate information from the Department of Administration with passage of this bill the bill will have no impact upon DWD's annual prevailing wage survey or the department's costs in conducting that survey.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

None.
