Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

BILL SUMMARY

- Requires that information about passing stopped emergency vehicles, tow trucks and highway machinery equipment be added to driver school curriculums as a condition of their licensing
- Requires that information about passing stopped emergency vehicles, tow trucks and highway machinery equipment be added to driver courses provided by technical schools and school districts as a condition of their approval by the Technical College System Board or the Department of Public Instruction
- Requires that DOT include the rules of passing stopped emergency vehicles, tow trucks and highway machinery equipment to the knowledge exam for driver license applicants

ASSUMPTIONS

- DOT will require that private driver school curriculum include the information specified in relation to the "move-over" law
- DOT will update its automated knowledge testing system to include the required information about the "move-over" law

CONCLUSION

No fiscal impact.
