Description

Prohibiting a person who has been convicted or adjudicated delinquent for committing a drug-related felony or who is the subject of a pending criminal charge or delinquency petition for committing a drug-related felony from showing that he or she has been rehabilitated for purposes of being licensed, certified, or contracted with to provide child care, of being employed or contracted as a caregiver of a child care provider, or of being permitted to reside at a premises where child care is provided

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Current law prohibits people convicted or adjudicated delinquent for a drug-related felony from being licensed, employed by or to live at a licensed day care location. Current law also allows the person to show they have been rehabilitated and are eligible for licensing, employment or live at a licensed day care if an investigation shows that the person has never been convicted or adjudicated delinquent and has no pending charges for committing any other serious crime [including a drug felony] and providing the person has completed their sentence, including probation, parole or extended supervision more than five years earlier.

This bill prohibits a person from claiming to be rehabilitated for child care purposes if they have ever been convicted of or adjudicated delinquent for committing any other crime and increases the time since sentence completion [if no other crime] from five years to ten years.

The Department of Children and Families currently coordinates electronically with the Department to determine if there have been 'other serious crimes' and, if so, if the person has completed their sentence more than five years earlier. This bill will require minimal information technology programming changes [ex. ten years instead of five] the costs of which can be absorbed by the Department.

There are no local costs to this bill.
