WHEREAS, the State of Wisconsin is on a path of significant and continuous economic growth; and

WHEREAS, the non-partisan Legislative Fiscal Bureau has announced that the State of Wisconsin's general fund revenue is projected to be $911 million higher than previously anticipated; and

WHEREAS, the tough, but prudent reforms over the last three years have set the groundwork for my administration to deliver on our promise to return more money to the hands of the hardworking taxpayers of the state; and

WHEREAS, the days of billion-dollar deficits and double digit tax increases are over, thanks to strong leadership and prudent fiscal management in state government; and

WHEREAS, these fiscal facts afford an opportunity to provide much-needed property and income tax relief to Wisconsin families, farmers, seniors, and small businesses; and

WHEREAS, in addition to cutting taxes, investing in worker training is a critical component of ensuring continued economic growth; and

WHEREAS, equipping our workers with the skills they need to find jobs in the workforce continues to be a top priority in moving Wisconsin forward; and

WHEREAS, the 2013-15 Biennial Budget included significant funding for worker training programs aimed at closing the skills gap, creating jobs, and growing our economy; and

WHEREAS, targeted investments in assisting people with disabilities in Wisconsin to find jobs helps one of the most vulnerable populations achieve independence while benefitting Wisconsin's economy as a whole; and

WHEREAS, reducing waiting lists at technical colleges in high-demand fields allows for greater access to valuable training and education programs around the state; and

WHEREAS, the expansion of dual-enrollment programs equips high school pupils with industry-recognized certifications in high-demand fields, placing skilled workers into the Wisconsin workforce faster;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Walker, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, pursuant to Article IV, Section 11, and Article V, Section 4 of the Wisconsin Constitution, do hereby require the convening of a special session of the Legislature at the Capitol in Madison, to commence at 11 a.m. on January 23, 2014, solely to consider and act upon legislation relating to the following:
