Description
criminal penalties for fraud in obtaining unemployment insurance benefits and providing a criminal penalty

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

The law would increase criminal penalties for fraud based upon the total dollar amount of fraud committed.

This law would not directly affect the Division of Unemployment Insurance operations. The Division of Unemployment Insurance would continue to refer fraud cases to prosecution as is currently done. The provisions in the bill are not anticipated to increase the number of investigations or those referred for criminal prosecution. DWD estimates no fiscal effect on operations for the Division of Unemployment Insurance.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

None.
