Description Expiration of statements of scope for administrative rules

Assumptions Used in Arriving at Fiscal Estimate

Under current law, an agency must prepare a statement of the scope of any administrative rule that it plans to promulgate that contains certain information about the agency's proposal to promulgate the rule. This bill provides for the expiration of a statement of scope 30 months after the date on which the statement is published in the Wisconsin Administrative Register.

DWD does not estimate a fiscal impact.

Long-Range Fiscal Implications

DWD does not anticipate long-range fiscal implications.
