STATE OF WISCONSIN DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION DOA 2049 (R 07/2011)

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES FISCAL ESTIMATE AND ECONOMIC IMPACT ANALYSIS

Solicity Compared Corrected	Type of Estimate and Analysis
Administrative Rule Chapter, Title and Number PI 26, Education for Employment Plans and Programs Subject Academic and Carcer Planning and Education for Employment Plans and Programs Fund Sources Affected GPR FED PRO PRS SEG SEG-S Fiscal Effect of Implementing the Rule Increase Fisical Effect Increase Existing Revenues Increase Costs Could Absorb Within Agency's Budget
P1 26, Education for Employment Plans and Programs Subject Academic and Career Planning and Education for Employment Plans and Programs Fund Sources Affected GPR FED PRO PRS SEG SEG-S	· ·
Subject Academic and Career Planning and Education for Employment Plans and Programs Fund Sources Affected Chapter 20, Stats, Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats, Appropriations Affected GPR FED PRO PRS SEG SEGS	Administrative Rule Chapter, Title and Number
Academic and Career Planning and Education for Employment Plans and Programs Fund Sources Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected Could Absorb Within Agency's Budget Could Absorb Within Agency Could Absorb Within Agency Could Absorb Within Agency Budget Could Absorb Within Agency Could Absorb	PI 26, Education for Employment Plans and Programs
Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected
GPR FED PRO PRS SEG SEGS Fiscal Effect of Implementing the Rule Increase Existing Revenues Increase Costs Could Absorb Within Agency's Budget Decrease Costs Decrease Costs
No Fiscal Effect Increase Existing Revenues Increase Costs Indeterminate Decrease Existing Revenues Increase Costs Decrease Cost	Fund Sources Affected Chapter 20, Stats. Appropriations Affected
No Fiscal Effect	□ GPR □ FED □ PRO □ PRS □ SEG SEG-S
Indeterminate	Fiscal Effect of Implementing the Rule
State's Economy Double Utility Rate Payers Pursuant to s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., school districts are required to provide education for employment programs that are approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 schoolyear, school districts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services unders. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every school board shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government	☐ Decrease Existing Revenues ☐ Could Absorb Within Agency's Budget
Accal Government Units	The Rule Will Impact the Following (Check All That Apply)
Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule Pursuant to s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., school districts are required to provide education for employment programs that are approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 schoolyear, schooldistricts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services under s. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every school board shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	☐ Local Government Units ☐ Public Utility Rate Payers
Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule Pursuant to s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., school districts are required to provide education for employment programs that are approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 school year, school districts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services under s. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every school board shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	Would Implementation and Compliance Costs Be Greater Than $20 million?
Pursuant to s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., school districts are required to provide education for employment programs that are approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 school year, school districts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services under s. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every school board shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	☐ Yes No approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 school year, school districts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services under s. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement. Summary of Rule's Economic and Fiscal Impact on Specific Businesses, Business Sectors, Public Utility Rate Payers, Local Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every school board shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	Policy Problem Addressed by the Rule
Governmental Units and the State's Economy as a Whole (Include Implementation and Compliance Costs Expected to be Incurred) Local: Under s. 121.02 (1) (m), Stats., every schoolboard shall provide access to an education for employment program approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	approved by the state superintendent. The Department of Public Instruction (DPI) promulgated PI 26 to administer this requirement. Beginning in the 2017-18 school year, school districts will also be required to provide academic and career planning services under s. 115.28 (59), Stats. The DPI is required to promulgate rules to implement this new requirement.
approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate. State: None. Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.
Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	approved by the state superintendent. The amount of resources needed to develop such a program will depend on variables such as the size and curriculum of the program, the amount of pupils enrolled in the program, the number of partnerships with outside institutions, etc. Therefore, the total impact is indeterminate.
Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning initiative will increase efficiency and effectiveness. Otherwise, the rule will not reflect current law. Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	Benefits of Implementing the Rule and Alternative(s) to Implementing the Rule
Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	Connecting school districts' Education for Employment Plans and Programs with the new academic and career planning
Revising the rule will bring the DPI Administrative Code in compliance with statutes. Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government No information.	Long Range Implications of Implementing the Rule
No information.
	Compare With Approaches Being Used by Federal Government
Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)	No information.
	Compare With Approaches Being Used by Neighboring States (Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota)

No information.

Name and Phone Number of Contact Person

Carl Bryan, Department of Public Instruction Administrative Rules Coordinator, (608) 267-9127.