SECTION 8. Tax 2.02 (12) (Note 5) is created to read:

Tax 2.02 (12) (Note) Beginning on January 1, 1968 and ending on January 1, 2010, Wisconsin had a formal reciprocity agreement with Minnesota. The reciprocity exclusion for personal service income did not apply where the personal or professional service income was earned as a part of a business operated by the taxpayer which had employees that did more than incidental duties for the business, or where there was the sale or delivery of goods which was more than an incidental part of the business. A partner's salary from a partnership where the selling of goods or services of the employees was more than incidental was subject to the reciprocity exclusion, but the partnership profits were not excluded. SECTION 12. Tax 2.475 (title), (1), (1) (Note), (2) (title) and (intro.), (2) (b) (Note), and (4) (Note) are amended to read:

Tax 2.475 (title) Apportionment of apportionable income of interstate railroads, ~~sleeping car companies~~ and car line companies.

The apportionable income of a railroad, ~~sleeping car company~~, or car line company engaged in business in and outside this state shall be apportioned to Wisconsin as described in this section, except if the company is in a combined group, its Wisconsin share of the combined group's apportionable income is computed as provided in s. 71.255 (5), Stats., and further detailed in s. Tax 2.61 (7).

(1) Note: A railroad, ~~sleeping car company~~, or car line company that is a corporation may be in a combined group for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2009. See s. Tax 2.61 (2) for a description of corporations required to use combined reporting.

(2) INTERSTATE RAILROADS ~~AND SLEEPING CAR COMPANIES~~. With respect to the imposition of Wisconsin franchise or income tax measured by or on net income for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991, the apportionable income of a railroad ~~or sleeping car company~~ engaged in business in and outside this state shall be apportioned to Wisconsin on the basis of the arithmetical average of the following 2 factors:

(b) Note: Railroads ~~and sleeping car companies~~ that are in combined groups must adjust the numerator and denominator of each of these factors and then convert the arithmetical average of these factors to the modified sales factor. The modified sales factor then determines the company's Wisconsin share of the combined group's apportionable income. See s. 71.255 (5), Stats., and s. Tax 2.61 (7) for details.

(4) Note: Section 71.26 (1) (a), Stats., was amended by 1991 Wis. Act 39, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1991. For taxable years beginning before January 1, 1991, railroads, ~~sleeping car companies~~ and car line companies were exempt from Wisconsin franchise and income taxation.

2. If the partnership or limited liability company treated as a partnership files a combined or composite return with another state on behalf of its partners or members who are nonresidents of that state and pays the tax on their proportionate share of the income earned there, attach to the Wisconsin income tax return either a copy of the Wisconsin schedule 3K-1 on which is shown the partner's or member's share of tax paid to that state, or a letter as provided in par. 3. If the partnership or limited liability company treated as a partnership files a partnership income or franchise tax return with another state and pays tax on or measured by income earned there that is attributable to its partners or members who are nonresidents of that state, attach to the Wisconsin income tax return either a copy of the Wisconsin schedule 3K-1 on which is shown the partner's or member's share of tax paid to that state, or a letter as provided in par.
