ORDER OF THE WISCONSIN BOARD OF EXAMINERS IN WATCHMAKING
AMENDING RULES

Pursuant to authority vested in the Wisconsin Board of Examiners in Watchmaking by sections 227.014, 125.04 and 125.08(4), Wisconsin Statutes, the agency hereby amends rules as follows;

Sections WATCH 1.08 and WATCH 1.20 of the WISCONSIN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE are amended to read:

WATCH 1.08 APPLICANT'S AFFIDAVIT. Applicants for Certificates of Registration by examination shall file with the Board an affidavit that he or she has not violated any of the provisions of Chapter 125, Wisconsin Statutes, together with evidence of completion of an apprenticeship of 4 years or its equivalent in school training and practical experience.

In determining the equivalent of an apprenticeship of 4 years, 3 years of full time practical experience or 1 school year of attendance in a watchmaking school will be considered as the equivalent of 1 year of apprenticeship. Claimed schooling and experience must be supported by affidavits.

Completion of training requirements in effect at the time of entering into an apprenticeship will be deemed sufficient training.

WATCH 1.20 UNETHICAL CONDUCT. "Unethical conduct" as used in sections 125.01 to 125.09 includes and means any conduct of a character likely to mislead, deceive or defraud the public and specifically includes, without limitation because of enumeration; advertising in which untruthful or misleading statements are made; advertising of prices of watch repairing; advertising or giving watch crystals, watch parts, attachments or any article gratis or at less than cost; performance of any service in pursuance of such advertising; loaning of a certificate of registration to any person; failure to display the certificate of registration conspicuously at all times; representing that a watch has been cleaned although its major parts have not been disassembled and dirt and old oil completely removed from the train wheels, pivots, bearings, jewels and other parts; performance of any work upon a watch in an unworkmanlike or unskilled manner; representing that certain services or parts are necessary or have been or will be used in the repair of a watch although such services or parts are not necessary or have not been used in such repairs; employing, directly or indirectly, any unregistered person to perform any watchmaking; or non-compliance, within 30 days, with the directive given in a written notice from the Board to terminate employment of or with any person who is violating any of the provisions of sections 125.01 to 125.09 or rules established in accordance therewith.

The amendments contained herein shall take effect on the first day of February, A.D. 1960, the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin Administrative Register, as provided in section 227.026(1) Wisconsin Statutes.

Dated this 16th day of December, A.D. 1959.
