Note: Chapter SEC 8 as it existed on December 31, 1977 was repealed and a new chapter SEC 8 was created effective January 1, 1978.

SEC 8.01 Petitions for hearing. Every request for a hearing shall be in the form of a petition filed with the commissioner. A petition for a hearing to review an order shall plainly admit or deny each specific allegation, finding or conclusion in the order and incorporated papers (unless the petitioner lacks sufficient knowledge or information to permit an admission or denial, in which case the petition shall so state, and such statement shall have the effect of a denial), and shall state all affirmative defenses.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.02 Notices of hearing and answers. A notice of hearing shall state the names of the parties to the hearing and the name of the hearing examiner. Unless otherwise provided in the notice of hearing, the decision of the hearing examiner shall be the final decision of the commissioner. Every party so directed in the notice of hearing shall file an answer plainly admitting or denying each specific allegation and setting forth affirmative defenses. Unless a different time is provided in the notice of hearing, or by the designated hearing examiner for cause shown, every answer shall be filed not later than 10 business days before the date of the hearing, or if a prehearing conference has been scheduled, not later than five business days before the date of the prehearing conference. Affirmative defenses not raised by answer as herein provided may be deemed waived.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.03 Appearances and defaults. Each party shall appear at the hearing and any prehearing conference either in person or by a duly authorized representative. If any party, without good cause, fails to file an answer as provided in Wis. Adm. Code section SEC 8.02, or fails to appear at a hearing or prehearing conference of which the party has notice, such failure may be deemed a default and the hearing examiner may thereupon make a decision, enter an order, or otherwise dispose of the case.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.04 Form of pleadings. All pleadings, briefs, decisions and orders filed or issued in connection with any administrative proceeding under this chapter shall be captioned "Before the Commissioner of Securities, State of Wisconsin" and shall be entitled "In the Matter of (name of party or parties), Petitioner (or Respondent)."

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.05 Record of hearings, transcripts, costs. (1) A stenographic, electronic or other record of oral proceedings shall be made in any case required by law.

(2) A written transcript of proceedings shall be prepared upon the request in writing

(a) Of any party for the purpose of seeking a rehearing or judicial review; or

(b) Of any person upon tender of the estimated costs of transcription, adjusted to reflect the actual costs when determined.

(3) A copy of the written transcript of proceedings shall be provided upon the request in writing (a) of any party setting forth by affidavit filed with the commissioner the party's impecuniousness, or (b) of any person upon tender of the estimated costs of preparing the copy, adjusted to reflect the actual costs when determined.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.06 Service or orders. A copy of every order issued without a hearing shall be sent promptly by certified mail to each party named in the order at his or her last known address or personally served upon the party or a legal representative.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.07 Effectiveness of orders, notice. Every order is effective when signed. Mailing of any order, notice or other document under this chapter to the last known address of any person, or personal service, constitutes notice thereof to the person.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1977, No. 264, eff. 1-1-78.

SEC 8.08 Taking and preserving of evidence. In any class 3 proceeding as defined in ch. 227, Stats., a party may be granted the right by the hearing officer to take and preserve evidence as provided in ch. 804, Stats.

History: Cr. Register, December, 1979, No. 288, eff. 1-1-80.
