Analysis Prepared by Department of Natural Resources

Statutory authority: ss. 29.103, 29.174(2)(b) and 227.16(2)(e), Stats.
Statutes interpreted: s. 29.103, Stats.

1. Wild turkey harvest levels are established based on desired hunter numbers increasing the 1989 permit level to 21,280 from the 1988 level of 11,140.
2. Five new hunting zones are opened to turkey hunting due to expanding turkey populations.
3. The south part of Zone 1 is renumbered Zone 1A for research purposes. New Zone 1A will provide opportunities to test aggressive harvest levels, study population dynamics and monitor hunter behavior.
4. The south boundary of Zones 2, 3 and 5 is changed to the Wisconsin River's south bank to be consistent with deer management unit boundaries.
5. Zones 7 and 8 are restructured into Zones 7, 8 and 13 to improve hunter distribution and group similar habitats.
6. Ft. McCoy Military Reservation is opened to turkey hunting under a separate permit system. Only persons unsuccessful in obtaining a turkey permit elsewhere in the state can participate in the Ft. McCoy hunt.
