ORDER OF THE EDUCATIONAL APPROVAL BOARD
AMENDING AND CREATING RULES

1 The Wisconsin Educational Approval Board adopts an order to repeal § EAB 5.11
2 (1) (intro.); to renumber § EAB 5.11 (1) (a) through (c), (3) through (5), and (8)
3 through (10); to renumber and amend § EAB 5.11 (1) (d) and (2); to amend §§ EAB
4 5.02 (3), 5.065 (3) (intro) and (a), 5.065 (4) (intro.), 5.065 (5) (intro.), 5.11 (title),
5 5.11 (2) [as renumbered] (title), (intro.) and (a), 5.11 (3) [as renumbered] (title),

13 schools.

Analysis by the Educational Approval Board

Statutory Authority: §§ 38.51 (3), (8) (b) and (10) (c), as amended by §§ 1131, 1131e and 1131g, 1991 Wisconsin Act 39, and 227.11 (2), Stats.

Statutes Interpreted: § 38.51 (8) (b) and (10) (b) and (c), Stats.

This order revises the school application fees contained in § EAB 5.11, Wis. Adm. Code, which interprets § 38.51 (10) (b) and (c), Stats., and creates new fees for filing a late renewal application or making a late payment of a fee for renewal of approval, amending an application, requesting approval of a revised program, and requesting approval of a change in school name or program title. It also revises the solicitor permit application fees contained in § EAB 10.02, Wis. Adm. Code, which interprets § 38.51 (8) (b), Stats., and creates new fees for amending an application for a solicitor's permit. Finally, it increases the amount of bond required before the board may issue a solicitor's permit to an applicant.

Under the provisions of § 38.51 (10) (c), Stats., fees paid by proprietary (for-profit postsecondary) schools must cover all costs for examination and approval (licensing) of such schools. The fee schedule in permanent rule prior to this order consisted of a number of fixed fees and one variable fee based on a school's adjusted gross annual school revenue; that variable fee is the second payment of the annual fee for renewal of school approval. The board last increased application fees with a permanent rule in December 1988; at that time, the total of the second payments of the annual fee for renewal of school approval constituted 46.4% of the overall budget for examining and approving proprietary schools. Because of declining applications for approval of new schools and programs and the continuation of the statutory $50 limit on the fee for handling an application for a solicitor's permit, fixed fees generated less revenue than expected toward the agency budget for examining and approving proprietary schools, and the portion of the budget raised through the second payment of the renewal application climbed to 69.7% in 1990-91.

The amendments to § EAB 5.11 increase the following application fees:

Type of Application	Old Fee	New Fee
Initial School Approval	$540	$700
First Payment, Renewal
Active School	$300	$500
Inactive School	$50	$100
New Program
Non-Degree	$405	$600
Associate Degree	$675	$1,200

Other Degree	$1,620	$2,100
Teaching Location	$135	$200
Change of Ownership or Control	$270	$400

The revised fees represent increases ranging from 30% to 100% over the fees listed in the rules of the board before the recent emergency rule took effect. If the agency takes no action to change the fee schedule in the permanent rules, the agency projected that fees at the level stated in the rules prior to this order would generate only $30,850 of proposed 1992-93 licensing costs, leaving the second payment of the renewal fee to generate $156,773, or 83.6%, of the costs incurred in examining and approving schools under § 38.51 (10), Stats., during the 1992-93 fiscal year. The increases in the fees will generate an additional $14,000 in revenues.

The order creates the following new fees under § EAB 5.11:

Type of Application	Fee
Late Renewal Application or Payment	$50 plus 1.5% of any payment due, for each month or part of month the application or payment is past due
Revised Programs
Non-Degree	$200
Associate Degree	$300
Other Degree	$700
Change in School Name or Program Title	$50
Amending an Incomplete Application
Initial School Approval	$70
Renewal of Approval	$25
New Non-Degree Program	$60

New Associate Degree Program	$120
New Other Degree Program	$210
Revised Non-Degree Program	$20
Revised Associate Degree Program	$30
Revised Other Degree Program	$70
Teaching Location	$20
Change of Ownership or Control	$40
Amending a Noncomplying Application
Initial School Approval	$175
Renewal of Approval	$50
New Non-Degree Program	$150
New Associate Degree Program	$300
New Other Degree Program	$525
Revised Non-Degree Program	$100
Revised Associate Degree Program	$150
Revised Other Degree Program	$175
Teaching Location	$50
Change of Ownership or Control	$100

Because the agency has not charged an additional fee in the past for approval of a changed school or program name, review of revised programs, review of amended applications, or follow-up in cases of late renewal applications and payments, the second payment of the renewal application has generated the funds to recover the cost of such activities. The agency projects that assessing fees specifically to recover the costs of these activities will generate approximately $7,800 in additional revenue for the agency and reduce the amount which the agency must raise from the second payment of the renewal fee.

The order also increases the application fee for new and renewal solicitors' permits, and creates new fees for amending permit applications. Because § 38.51 (8) (b) contained a $50 limitation on fees for solicitor permit applications, the board had not increased the fee for an original solicitor's permit since December 1, 1980; the fee for a renewal solicitor's permit has been at the previous statutory limit since July 1, 1987. Section 1131, 1991 Wisconsin Act 39, removed from statute the $50 limitation on solicitor permit application fees, and the board raised the solicitor permit fees by emergency rule. This order revises the permanent rules to raise the fee for original and renewal solicitor's permits to $200, and to create fees of $20 for amending an incomplete application for a solicitor's permit and $50 for amending a noncomplying application for a solicitor's permit. The board projects that the increased fee will provide $9,000 in additional revenue during 1992-93, and the fees for amending applications for a solicitor's permit will yield $500 in revenue during the same period.

With the increases in the existing fees and the addition of the new fees, and presuming that the agency receives the projected number of applications, it appears that the second payment of the school renewal fee will need to generate 52.9% of the costs incurred for 1992-93. This represents a decrease from the 69.7% generated under the fee structure in place during the 1990-91 fiscal year.

The revised fees for renewal of school approval will apply to applications for renewal of approvals which expire on or after December 1, 1992. All other increased fees and all new fees will apply to new or amended applications received on or after July 1, 1992.

In addition, the order changes the amount of bond required before the board may issue a solicitor's permit. Section 1131, 1991 Wisconsin Act 39, changed the required solicitor's bond from $1,000 to $2,000, and this order reflects that statutory change.

27 sands of dollars, as reported to the board on the application
28

1 for renewal of approval or as estimated by the board under
2 par. (h)

3 M = the rate in dollars per thousands of dollars of adjusted gross
4 annual school revenue determined as provided in par. (f)
