EXECUTIVE ORDER 52. Relating to the Dissolution of the Dane County Regional Planning Commission.

WHEREAS, Wisconsin identified the need to address land use, water quality, transportation and environmental issues on a regional basis more than 40 years ago by authorizing the creation of regional planning commissions;

WHEREAS, all but six of Wisconsin's 72 counties participate in multi-county regional planning commissions, which have proven to be a valuable resource for local and state government in identifying emerging trends that must be addressed through sound planning.

WHEREAS, the only counties in Wisconsin that are not included in a multi-county regional planning commission are the five counties that border on Dane County, specifically, Sauk, Dodge, Columbia, Jefferson and Rock counties.

WHEREAS, the Dane County Regional Planning Commission is the only regional planning commission in Wisconsin that serves only one county rather than a region;

WHEREAS, the Dane County Regional Planning Commission was created by 1970 Executive Order 22 by Governor Warren Knowles;

WHEREAS, the inclusion of only one county in the Dane County Regional Planning Commission led to concerns being expressed by towns and small communities in Dane County that the Commission was unfairly dominated by the urban areas of the county;

WHEREAS, these concerns have grown over time, and resulted in 1998 in adoption of resolutions by 35 communities in Dane County that invoked their right under the statutes to dissolve the Dane County Regional Planning Commission and to withdraw their communities from the jurisdiction of the Dane County Regional Planning Commission.

WHEREAS, certified copies of all 35 resolutions were filed with the Office of the Governor in August 1998 and have been found to be in proper form.

WHEREAS, efforts were made to avoid the need for dissolution by reconstituting the Dane County Regional Planning Commission through adoption of provisions in 1999 Wisconsin Act 9 that changed the membership of the Commission and established a separate Task Force to review the possibility of creating a multi-county regional planning commission.

WHEREAS, the chair of the Task Force has now reported to me by letter dated August 8, 2002, indicated that the work of the Task Force is completed, and on the basis of its review, recommending dissolution of the Dane County Regional Planning Commission.

WHEREAS, before a multi-county regional planning commission may be created to serve the six counties in South Central Wisconsin, the Dane County Regional Planning Commission should be dissolved;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SCOTT McCALLUM, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, by the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of this State, and specifically by Section 66.0309 (15) of the Wisconsin Statutes, do hereby:

- b. Such resolutions were adopted by the governing bodies of a majority of the local units in the region of the Dane County Regional Planning Commission;
