

The Board held a public comment period and conducted a public hearing on November 21, 2019. The Board did not receive written comments or testimony concerning the statement of scope.

Comparison with rules in adjacent states:

Illinois:

Rules of the Illinois Board of Examiners address procedures for the examinations required for licensure as a CPA. The rules do not explicitly allow continuous testing, however through its rules the Board has adopted and makes use of the Uniform CPA Examination and scoring system of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants [23 Ill. Adm. Code 1400.150].

Iowa:

Rules of the Iowa Accountancy Examining Board address procedures for the examinations required for licensure as a CPA. The rules allow continuous testing on the Uniform CPA Examination [193A IAC 3.6 (1) c.].

Michigan:

Rules of the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs address procedures for the Uniform CPA Examination. The rules do not allow continuous testing, as they provide that applicants may not retake any sections of the exam within the same examination window (calendar quarter) [Mich Admin Code, R 338.5110a (d)].

Minnesota:

Rules of the Minnesota Board of Accountancy address the ability to retake a failed section of the Uniform CPA Examination. The rules do not allow continuous testing, as they provide an applicant may not retake a failed section or sections of the examination in the same Board-determined examination window [Minnesota Rules, part 1105.2000 2. B.].

Summary of factual data and analytical methodologies:

The proposed rules were developed by obtaining input and feedback from the Accounting Examining Board.
