

An Act to amend chapter nineteen of the Revised Statutes.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows: Chap. 42.

SECTION 1. Section eighty three, of chapter nineteen, of the revised statutes, is hereby amended, by striking out all previous to the words "and the parents and guardians," and inserting in place thereof, "Any resident of a school district;" and by striking out the words "such library," and inserting in place thereof, "the school district library of said district," so that said section shall read: Any resident of a school district, and the parents and guardians of all the children therein, between the ages of four and twenty years, shall be permitted to use books from the school district library of said district, without charge, being responsible to the district for the safe return thereof, and for any injury done thereto, according to such rules and regulations as may be established by the state superintendent.

SEC. 2. This act shall be printed immediately after the passage thereof, and when so printed shall be in full force.

Approved, March 19, 1853.

An Act in relation to School Lands.

Chap. 43.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In all cases where, through mistake or negligence of appraisers, any of the school or university lands shall remain unappraised, the Governor may appoint one or more, not to exceed three appraisers in the counties in which such lands are situated, whose duty it shall be, after receiving notice of their appointment, and the necessary instructions, to proceed to appraise such lands and make returns thereof in the manner provided by an act entitled an act to provide for the subdivision and appraisal of school lands in counties therein named, and granting pre-emption rights thereon, approved March 15th, 1852.

SEC. 2. At any time after receiving the report of the appraisal of any lands omitted by previous appraisers, as mentioned in the first section of this act, the school commissioners may, upon giving the notice required by section five, of chapter twenty-four of the revised statutes,

Governor may appoint appraisers,

Lands omitted
to be appraised, how sold.
