

Section.

SECTION 2. At the general election in November, 1856, there shall be elected in the odd numbered senatorial districts above described, a senator for each district, whose term of office shall expire in two years after the commencement of such term, and also at the same time shall be elected in the following even numbered districts, namely: 26th, 28th and 30th, a senator for each district, whose term of office shall expire in one year after the commencement of such term of office.

Secretary of state to give notice of election, &c.

SEC. 3. The secretary of state shall immediately after the passage of this act give notice of the election of the several officers to be elected at the next general election in the manner prescribed by charter six (6) of the revised statutes entitled "of elections other than for town officers," and such notice so given shall be taken and deemed a compliance with the requirements of said chapter six of said revised statutes, for all the purposes of the election of officers required to be elected at the next general election under this act.

SEC. 4. This act shall be published immediately after its passage, and take effect from and after its publication.
Approved September 30, 1856.

CHAPTER 110.

Published Oct. 15.

An Act to amend chapter No. 74 of the General Laws of 1856, entitled "An Act for the promotion and encouragement of Agriculture."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

Amendment to chap. 74 General Laws 1856.

SECTION 1. Chapter 74 of the general laws of 1856, entitled "an act for the promotion and encouragement of agriculture," is hereby amended by striking out from section six the words "treasurer thereof," and inserting in place thereof the words "secretary of state."

SEC. 2. Said chapter is further so amended as to include the following as the eleventh section, and altering the succeeding section to number twelve.

“There is hereby appropriated annually, out of any money in the treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred dollars to each county society, which shall be organized under the provisions of this [act.]”

Sec. 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved Oct. 2, 1856.

CHAPTER 111.

Published October 7.

An Act concerning Suits in Equity and Actions at Law.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In cases when the subject of any suit in equity or action, or proceeding at law, shall be the title or any right or interest in, to, of or concerning land, such suit, action or proceeding may be commenced, and proceeded with to final judgment or decree, subject to existing laws in regard to change of venue, in the county where such land may be situate, and in case such land shall lie in more than one county, then in any county wherein is situate any of such land, any law to the contrary notwithstanding, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, any and all process, may be directed for service or execution, to the sheriff of any and as many counties of this state, as may be needful, and the same may by such officer be served or executed in his county.

Suits in equity &c.—how proceeded with.

Sec. 2. Where any suit is commenced or is pending in any court of this state for the foreclosure of any mortgage, partition of real estate, or to compel the specific performance of any contract, relative to real estate, or to quiet title thereto, or to divest or transfer the like to the same by conveyance or decree, or to compel the sale of the same, for any purpose authorized by law, the complainant or plaintiff in such suit, in case any defendant therein may be absent from, or non-resident of the state, may

Suits commenced, &c.