

term, and at least thirty days before or after the regular term of the circuit court in such counties. Said special term shall be held for the trials of issues of law, for the hearing of motions, and for the hearing and trial of causes without a jury, and for the transaction of any and all business that may be done at a regular term, except the trial of issues of fact by a jury, at such time and place as the circuit judge of the said sixth judicial circuit may designate.

For what purpose.

Notice, how and when given.

SEC. 2. The said judge of the sixth judicial circuit shall immediately in receiving notice of the passage and publication of this act, designate and publish in some newspaper of general circulation in said circuit, the times and places of holding said special terms of court, and when so designated they shall not be changed within two years. And at such terms the issues of law and motions, and all other business that may be transacted thereat, pending in any and every county in said circuit, may be heard and disposed of with the same force and effect as it may now be heard and disposed of in the county in which the causes or matters are or shall hereafter be pending; and when the causes are pending in other counties in said circuit, then the county in which the said special term is held, the clerk of the court where such term is held, shall certify the orders and papers to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the same is pending, and the papers shall be filed, and orders entered by the clerk of the court of the county in which such actions are properly pending.

Take effect.

SEC. 3. This act shall be immediately published and shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 14, 1859.

[Published March 17, 1859.]

CHAPTER 99.

AN ACT to amend chapter 183 of the revised statutes, entitled "for the preservation of game."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Amendment.

SECTION 1. That section 9, of chapter 183, of the revised statutes be, and the same is hereby amended by striking out the word "July," in the sixth line of said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "August," and by striking out the word "February," in the eighth line of said 9th section, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "November."

SEC. 2. That the 10th section of said chapter 188 be, Amendment. and the same is hereby amended by adding to said section after the word "provided" at the end thereof, the words, "and the possession of any of the said birds within the time when the taking and killing of the same is prohibited by law, shall be prima facie evidence that the same was taken or killed within the time of such prohibition."

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from Take effect. and after its passage.

Approved March 12, 1859.

[Published March 26, 1859.]

CHAPTER 100.

AN ACT to provide for laying out highways on the line between city and towns.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever it shall be deemed necessary to lay out a highway upon the line between a town and city, such highway shall be laid by the supervisors of said town, and by three commissioners elected by the common council of said city, who shall be duly sworn before entering upon the discharge of their duties. Highways, how laid.

SEC. 2. The common council shall elect commissioners to lay out highways as herein specified, on the petition of six freeholders of said city, and said commissioners shall join in laying out such highway, if, in their opinion, the public good will thereby be promoted. Commissioners, their duties.

SEC. 3. All the powers possessed by supervisors of adjoining towns in cases of application to lay out highways on town lines, shall be possessed by the said commissioners and supervisors, and all the provisions of chapter nineteen of the revised statutes, relative to laying out, establishing and maintaining highways on the line between towns, shall apply to highways on the line between cities and towns; and all matters relating to such wards, required to be recorded with town clerks, shall be recorded in the office of the city clerk, whenever such city is a party to laying out such highway. Their powers, &c. Records.

Approved March 14, 1859.