

CHAPTER 234.

[Published April 16, 1860.]

AN ACT to provide for the redemption and conveyance of unredeemed lands in Brown, Oconto, and Kewaunee counties.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The clerks of the boards of supervisors of Brown, Oconto, and Kewaunee counties, in the State of Wisconsin, are hereby authorized and empowered to advertise, once a week, for twelve successive weeks, a list of all unredeemed lands, sold in the year 1857, for the taxes of the year 1856, in said counties, respectively, specifying each tract or lot, the name of the person to whom assessed, if to any, and the amount of the taxes, charges, and interest, calculated to the last day of redemption, as provided in this act, together with a notice, that unless such lands be redeemed on or before the day limited therefor, specifying the same, they will be conveyed to the purchaser.

SEC. 2. Such list shall be published in a newspaper printed in the county in which the lands aforesaid are situated, if there be such newspaper, and if none, then in a newspaper printed in an adjoining county, if there be one, but if there is no such newspaper printed in the same, or an adjoining county, then in a newspaper printed at the seat of government of this State.

SEC. 3. The time for the redemption of all unredeemed lands sold for taxes, situated in said counties of Brown, Oconto, and Kewaunee, and which were sold for the taxes of the year 1856, is hereby extended for a period of six months from and after the expiration of the time limited by the first section of this act for the advertisement of said list.

SEC. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 29, 1860.
