

CHAPTER 372.

[Published April 30, 1860.]

AN ACT authorizing the town clerk of the town of Port Washington to convey real estate.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The village clerk and treasurer, of the village of Port Washington, who were in office, as such clerk and treasurer, on the 25th day of March, A. D. 1858, be and are hereby authorized and required to deposit all books of records, papers, certificates of sales of lands for taxes, and all other papers, whatsoever, pertaining to the village of Port Washington, with the town clerk of the town of Port Washington.

Books of record, &c., required to be deposited with town clerk of Port Washington.

SEC. 2. The town clerk of the town of Port Washington, in the county of Ozaukee, is hereby authorized and empowered to execute and deliver, under his hand and seal, suitable conveyances for all lands sold for taxes or assessments for improvements, by the treasurer of the village of Port Washington. Said conveyances to be executed in the same manner, for the same purpose, and with like force and effect, as the said treasurer was authorized to do by section fifty, of chapter 366, of the Private Laws of the State of Wisconsin, for the year A. D. 1857.

Town clerk of Port Washington to convey lands sold for taxes.

SEC. 3. In all cases before any lands shall be conveyed, as provided in section two of this act, the said town clerk shall cause to be advertised a correct description of the lots and parcels of land which have been sold for the non-payment of taxes, and which remain unredeemed for six weeks, in some newspaper published in the village of Port Washington, stating that all such lots or parcels of land will be forfeited, if the taxes, interest and charges upon the same are not paid, on or before the expiration of the publication of said advertisement.

Lands to be advertised before conveyed.

SEC. 4. All lots or parcels of land which shall be advertised for the forfeiture of the same, shall be subject to a charge of ten cents for each lot or parcel advertised, and one dollar for each conveyance executed in accordance with the provisions of this act, to be paid to said town clerk, by the person to whom the conveyance shall be made.

Fees for advertising and conveyance.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 2, 1860.
