CHAPTER 249.

[Published April 22, 1861.]

AN ACT to revive and amend Chapter 45 of the General Laws of 1859, entitled "An act for the removal of the County Seat of Crawford county."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 45 of the general laws of 1859, <sup>Revival.</sup> entitled "An act for the removal of the county seat of Crawford county," is hereby revived, and amended as follows:

1st. By striking out from the first section of said <sup>Amendments.</sup> act the words "next general election" where they occur in said section, and inserting in lieu thereof the words and figures "general election for the year 1861."

2d. By adding to the 4th section of said act the following proviso: <sup>Records, offices, courts, &c.</sup> "Provided, that if a majority of all the votes cast at said election upon the subject, be in favor of such removal, the records and offices of said county shall remain at Prairie du Chien, and the circuit and county courts of said county shall be held there until fire proof offices are provided at the new county seat of said county, sufficient for the convenient and safe keeping of all the records of said county, and the convenient accommodation of all the county officers of said county who are or may be law entitled to have offices furnished at the expense of the county, and until a proper room is provided for holding courts at said new county seat.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1861.
