

CHAPTER 80.

[Published March 21, 1861.]

AN ACT to authorize the city of Milwaukee to dispose of certain Property and Securities, and to declare certain trusts.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The commissioners of the public debt, with the approval of the mayor and common council of said city, may sell, assign, exchange or otherwise dispose of any and all stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities or property whatever which said city now hath or may hereafter receive, for or on account of city bonds issued in aid of any railroad company, or in lieu of or in exchange for any stocks, securities or property so received, for the purpose of extinguishing the liability of the city on such city bonds, or of increasing the sinking fund to retire the same; and the vendee or assignee of said city shall, if it is so agreed with said city, have the same rights and remedies in and upon such stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities as said city has or might have.

Sale of stocks, &c., for the payment of bonds issued in aid of railroads.

SECTION 2. The common council of said city may by ordinance or resolution, declare that any such stocks, bonds, mortgages, or other securities or property mentioned in the section last above, shall be held in trust by the city treasurer or by any other person to whom the city may entrust the same, solely as securities for the payment, pro rata or otherwise, of the bonds issued by the city on account of which they have been or may be, so received by the city, and prescribe the terms and periods of time on and for which they shall be so held or made available, and while such stocks, bonds, mortgages or other securities or property are so held, they shall not in any case or in any manner be subjected to the payment of any other city debt than that to the payment of which it is so devoted in trust; nor even of that debt, except upon the terms and conditions of such ordinance or resolution; and any act or acts of the said city or its common council heretofore had or taken, selling, assigning or transferring or authorizing the sale, assignment or exchange of any such bonds,

Common council may declare how said stocks, &c., shall be held.

stocks or other securities as mentioned in the section last above, or declaring or directing the same to be held as security, for any particular city bond or debts as aforesaid, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1861.

CHAPTER 81.

[Published March 21, 1861.]

AN ACT to provide for the protection of Camp Meetings and other religious assemblies.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Sale of intoxicating drinks prohibited.

SECTION 1. That any person who shall sell any intoxicating drinks within two miles of any camp meeting, or other religious assembly, without the written permit of the person or persons having the oversight and management of such camp meeting or religious assembly, or who shall otherwise willfully interrupt or disturb such meeting or assembly, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars nor less than five dollars: provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit any such sale at any regularly established store, tavern, or other place of business, which may have been licensed or established previously to such meeting, and not with the intent to evade the provisions of this act.

Proviso.

Penalty.

SECTION 2. Any person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and who shall be notified by any person having charge of such meeting or assembly, or by any other person, that he, she or they are violating the law, and who shall, after such notice, continue in such violation, he, she or they shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, a fine not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, to be collected as hereinafter provided, and paid over to the county treasurer, where the same, as other fines, are required to be paid, for the use of schools.
