

SECTION 21. At the next city election to be held in the city of Mineral Point, on the first Tuesday in April next, the question of the adoption of this amended charter shall be submitted to the qualified voters resident in said city; and for that purpose there shall be provided a separate ballot box for votes cast on that subject. Those voting in the affirmative shall deposit a vote on which shall be written or printed the words "for amended charter," and those voting in the negative shall deposit a vote on which shall be written or printed the words "against amended charter."

CHAPTER 86.

Vote on charter.

SECTION 22. This act shall take effect from and after its passage and publication; and the same shall cease to be a law or to have effect on the first Tuesday of April next, in case a majority of the votes cast shall be "against amended charter," as provided in the preceding section.

Effect.

SECTION 23. An act entitled "an act to incorporate the city of Mineral Point," approved March 2d, 1857, and all acts amendatory thereto, so far as the same contravene or are inconsistent with the operations of this act, or are superseded by the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

Approved March 16, 1861.

CHAPTER 86.

[Published April 22, 1861.]

AN ACT to organize the fourth ward of the city of Appleton, and to change the boundaries of the first and second wards.

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that part of the territory included within the corporate limits of the city of Appleton, which lies south of the center of the main channel of Fox river, is hereby set off from the first and third wards of said city, and organized into a separate ward to be called the fourth ward of the city of Appleton.

Limits.

CHAPTER 86.

Election of officers.

Council to appoint inspectors, give notice, &c.

SECTION 2. The legal voters, residing within the limits of the territory aforesaid, shall, at the time of the annual charter election in the year 1861, at such place as the common council of said city shall appoint, elect a justice of the peace, two aldermen, one constable and a county supervisor, for the said fourth ward; and shall at the same time and place cast their votes for mayor, treasurer, assessor and marshal of said city. The common council shall previously appoint the inspectors for such election, and cause notice thereof to be given with the general charter election notice as in other wards, and the inspectors so appointed shall by writing under their hands appoint two clerks thereof. Such clerks and inspectors shall before entering on their duties, take and subscribe the constitutional oath; and the election shall, in all other respects, be conducted in the same manner as the annual charter election in the other wards of said city. One of the aldermen so elected shall be chosen to hold the office for one, and the other for two years; and at every annual election thereafter, one alderman shall be chosen, who shall hold his office for two years. There shall be written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, above the name of the person voted for by any elector for alderman for one year, the words "alderman for one year." Every officer so elected shall have and may exercise the same rights and powers, and shall be subject to the same duties and liabilities, so far as relates to the said fourth ward, as similar officers in either of the other wards; and all the provisions of the charter of said city, and of the amendments thereto, and of the laws of the state applicable to the ward officers of the other wards of said city, are hereby declared to apply to the officers that shall be so elected, and to their successors in office.

Apportionment of funds.

SECTION 3. The common council shall, within sixty days after the said election shall be held, apportion the amount of funds levied for ward purposes, in the first and third wards in the year 1860, over and above the amount of expenditures and balances due on contracts for that year for ward purposes, according to the proportion between the assessed valuation of taxable property in each ward on the north side, and that on the south side of the river; and the amount appearing from such apportionment to have been raised on the south side, shall be a separate fund, to be known as the fourth ward fund, and shall be expended only in the payment of debts thereafter to be contracted by the aldermen of the said fourth ward, or by the street commissioner, for fourth ward purposes. CHAPTER 93.

SECTION 4. That part of the first ward of said city described as lots three (3,) four (4,) and five (5), in block one (1,) in the recorded plat of Appleton, is hereby taken off from said first ward, and attached to the second ward of said city, and shall be and remain, to all intents and purposes, a part of the said second ward. Boundaries of wards altered.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1861.

CHAPTER 93.

[Published March 22, 1861.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 133 of the private and local laws of 1853, entitled "an act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the village of Elkhorn."

The People of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The sixth section of the act to which this act is amendatory, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: "The supervisors of the said village of Elkhorn shall have power to raise by levying a tax on all the taxable property in said village, for the purpose of making, building, improving and repairing the highways, streets, and bridges in said village, any sum or sums not less than one nor more than ten mills on the dollar, on all such property; and also for the same purpose, to assess a poll tax of one dollar each upon all that description of individuals, residents of said village, liable by law to pay a poll tax in the several towns of this state; and all the taxes levied and assessed in said village for the purposes mentioned in this section, shall be paid in money, and be collected as the other general taxes of said village are collected, and when so Tax for making and improving streets.
