

CHAPTER 118.

[Published March 26, 1862.]

AN ACT authorizing the clerk of the county board of supervisors of Portage county to assess and levy a tax on the town of Pine Grove, in said county, and the sheriff in said county to collect the same.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authority to levy taxes to amount of $638 56.

SECTION 1. The clerk of the county board of supervisors of the county of Portage, is hereby authorized and directed to assess and levy upon the equalized assessment roll of 1860, of the town of Pine Grove, in said county of Portage, a state tax of seventy-eight dollars and seventy-two cents, [and] a county tax of five hundred and fifty-nine dollars and eighty-four cents; and to make out an assessment roll for the collection of the same, in due form of law, and to annex his warrant thereto for the collection of the same, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff of said county of Portage, commanding him to collect from each of the persons and corporations named in the annexed assessment roll, and of the owners of the real estate described therein, the taxes set down in such roll opposite to their respective names and to the several parcels of land therein described, which said taxes shall be collected and returned by said sheriff to the county treasurer of Portage county, in the same way and manner that a town treasurer is now required by law to collect and return taxes.

Sheriff to collect.

Fees therefor.

SECTION 2. The sheriff of Portage county is hereby authorized and directed to receive said assessment roll and warrant from said clerk of the county board of supervisors of Portage county, and by himself or a deputy to proceed to collect the taxes charged in such roll; and for that purpose shall call at least once on each person taxed, or at his usual place of residence, if in his county, and shall demand payment of the taxes charged to him on such roll; and shall receive, as fees for collecting and returning said tax, the same that a town treasurer would be, by law, entitled to receive for collecting and returning the same, and shall make return of said assessment roll and warrant to the treasurer of Portage county, within ninety days after receiving the same.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 21, 1862.

CHAPTER 121.

[Published March 26, 1862.]

AN ACT to authorize the board of supervisors of Marathon county to audit and pay certain claims.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Marathon, are hereby authorized to audit and allow claims for services rendered in opening or working upon a certain road established, or intended to be established, in said county of Marathon, by the board of supervisors of said county, by an order adopted by said board, at their annual session held in November, 1861; said claims to be presented to said board and verified by affidavit, in the same manner as other claims against the county.

Authority to audit claims for opening certain road.

SECTION 2. When said claims shall have been audited and allowed as aforesaid, the board of supervisors of said county shall issue county orders in payment thereof; and such county orders shall, in all respects, be as valid and binding against said county of Marathon, as other county orders issued in payment of county indebtedness.

County orders to be issued in payment.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 21, 1862.
