CHAPTER 270.

[Published April 11, 1862.]

AN ACT to amend sec. [section] 66 of chapter 23 of the revised statutes, entitled "of common schools."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Tax for building
school houses in new district.

SECTION 1. Section sixty-six of chapter twenty-three of the revised statutes of the state of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by adding to the same the following clause: "In case the new district shall have raised a tax and erected or provided for itself a school house, before the former district shall have raised and paid over to the treasurer of the new district the amount in this section provided to be raised and paid over, it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the new district in whose hands said amount, so paid over, may at any time remain, to pay over, on demand, the sum so paid him or his predecessor, by the former district, to the individuals to whose credit the same would have gone, had said sum been raised and paid over by the former district before the said school house was erected or provided by the new district; and should such treasurer refuse, on demand by any party entitled thereto, to pay over to him his just proportion of said amount, the same may be collected in a suit at law by said party, upon the official bond of such treasurer."

Approved April 5, 1862.
