

Transfer of funds
to bounty fund.

dollars, upon the treasurer of said town, who shall pay the same from any funds in his hands belonging to the bounty fund; and for the payment of such interest as may be due and unpaid upon any of the orders so issued, the supervisors of said town may cause to be transferred from the general fund of said town to the said bounty fund, all necessary funds to an amount sufficient to pay the interest which may have accrued upon any such orders.

Orders receivable for tax.

SECTION 2. The orders so issued shall be accepted by the treasurer of said town in payment of the tax levied for the creation of said bounty fund; and at the time of the receipt by him of any of the orders so issued, he shall indorse upon the order or orders so received, the date of reception and the amount for which any such order was so received by him, and the interest shall cease upon all orders from the date of their respective reception by said treasurer.

Duty of treasurer on receipt of orders.

SECTION 3. The treasurer of the town of Taycheedah aforesaid, shall pay all orders so drawn from the fund for such purposes provided, and from no other.

Orders only payable from bounty fund.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 15, 1864.

CHAPTER 187.

[Published March 22, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend section 5 of chapter ten of the revised statutes, entitled "of state officers."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Salary of lieutenant governor, while acting governor.

SECTION 1. Section five of chapter ten of the revised statutes is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "Whenever, from any cause, the powers and duties of the office of governor shall devolve upon the lieutenant governor, he shall receive [as] compensation for such services, the sum of five dollars per day for the time actually employed, to be audited by the secretary of state, and drawn from the treasury upon his warrant; and a sum sufficient to pay such compensation is hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1864.

CHAPTER 138.

[Published March 21, 1864.]

AN ACT to change the name of the village of Stanton, in the county of Portage.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The name of the village of Stanton, in the county of Portage, is hereby changed to Plover, and it shall hereafter be known in law and otherwise by that name ; and the inhabitants of the district of country described in section one of chapter two hundred and seventy-eight of the private and local laws of 1857, entitled “ an act to incorporate the village of Algernon,” and in section one of chapter two hundred and three of the private and local laws of 1858, entitled “ an act to amend an act entitled ‘ an act to incorporate the village of Algernon,’ ” shall hereafter be known by the name, style and title of the “ president and trustees of the village of Plover.”

Name changed to Plover.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 18, 1864.

CHAPTER 139.

[Published March 21, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize and empower Abeillard L. D. A. Duchateau to build and maintain a dock and pier extending into Green Bay.

(See supplement to local laws.)