

CHAPTER 184.

[Published March 31, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the assessment of real and personal property in and for the village of Neenah, for the year 1868.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The assessment of real and personal Acts legalized. property made by Charles O. Paige, in and for the village of Neenah, for the year (A. D.) 1868, and the tax levied, and sales of lands and lots for the non-payment of the taxes assessed thereon, in said village, in said year, are hereby legalized and declared valid.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 22, 1864.

CHAPTER 185.

[Published April 2, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the general laws of the year 1859, entitled "an act requiring parties to suits upon appeal or writ of error, to prosecute the same with diligence."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and Cases on writs of error, &c. thirty-one of the general laws of the year 1859, entitled "an act requiring parties to writs upon appeal or writ of error, to prosecute the same with diligence," is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "In all cases in which the supreme court shall order a new trial or further proceedings in the court from which such cases have been brought to the supreme court upon writs of error or appeal, the record shall be transmitted to such court, and proceedings shall be had thereon within one When to be prosecuted. year from the time of entering in the supreme court such an order for a new trial or further proceedings, or in default thereof, such cases shall be considered and treated as discontinued and dismissed, unless the court for good cause shown, shall order otherwise.”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 22, 1864.

CHAPTER 186.

[Published April 2, 1864.]

AN ACT empowering registers of deeds to discharge the record of mortgages, in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Discharge of certain mortgages given to railroads.

SECTION 1. In all cases where mortgages have been executed by any person or persons on real estate situated in the state of Wisconsin, to railroad corporations, and such mortgages have been recorded in the office of the register of deeds in the county where said real estate is situated, and the said mortgage shall have been transferred by said corporation, and there shall be no record of such transfer in such office, and said corporation shall have ceased to exist, or shall have no board of directors competent to discharge such mortgage of record, it shall be the duty of the register of deeds of any such county, on the presentation to him, at his office, of any such mortgage, together with the note or notes or bond executed as collateral thereto, if there be any, and an affidavit duly verified, showing that the person presenting the same is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same have been paid or satisfied in full, forthwith to file such affidavit in his office, and to enter in due form a satisfaction of said mortgage of record: provided, that such register of deeds shall not charge more than twenty-five cents for discharging the duties required by this act in respect to any one mortgage.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 22, 1864.