

said but once; and in case the value of such improvement shall exceed the amount assessed upon such lot or lots, parcel or parcels of land, such excess shall be credited upon any future assessment or assessments made upon such lot or lots, parcel or parcels of land for a like purpose, until the same shall be fully credited and allowed."

Application.

SECTION 2. This act shall apply to all improvements upon any street, highway, lane or alley specified in section one of this act, which have heretofore been made, the expense whereof has not already been assessed, and to all such improvements hereafter made [as] may have been ordered before the passage of this act.

Repeal.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 411.

[Published April 28, 1864.]

AN ACT to correct the names of certain counties, and to prescribe certain duties for the secretary of state, in relation to the publication of laws.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Orthography of certain counties.

SECTION 1. The correct names of the counties of "Douglass," "Shawanaw" and "Waupacca," in this state, (so spelled in the revised statutes of 1858,) are hereby declared to be Douglas, Shawano and Waupaca, respectively; and hereafter in making any official or authorized publication of any act, memorial or resolution heretofore or hereafter passed, in which any or either of the said counties is mentioned, the secretary of state shall cause the name or names of the county or counties so mentioned, to be spelled correctly, as the orthography thereof is hereinbefore declared and established, whether such name or names be or be not correctly spelled in the enrolled copy of such act, memorial or resolution.

SECTION 2. The practice which has heretofore prevailed in the printing and publishing of the laws of this state, of following the letter of the text of enrolled acts, memorials and resolutions, in cases where words and names have been misspelled, and then inserting the same word or name in brackets, correctly spelled, is hereby prohibited. But in all official or necessary publications hereafter made, the secretary of state shall cause all words and names to be correctly spelled in the printed laws; and in such publications he shall also correct such errors as "previous" for previously, "subsequent" for subsequently, "is" for are, "affect" for effect, and the like, where such errors occur in the enrolled act, memorial or resolution; and no such correction shall ever be held or taken as an alteration of or departure from the enrolled copy. On questions of orthography, Webster's unabridged dictionary shall be taken as the standard.

Secretary of state authorized to correct orthography and grammar of enrolled bills.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 412.

[Published April 28, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend chapter two hundred and eighty of the general laws of 1863, entitled "an act to lay out a state road from Superior, through Douglas and Burnett counties, to Saint Croix Falls, in the county of Polk, with a branch along the mineral range, in town forty-seven, range fourteen west."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter two hundred and eighty of the general laws of 1863, entitled "an act to lay out a state road from Superior, through Douglas and Burnett counties, to Saint Croix Falls, in the county of Polk, with a branch along the mineral range, in town forty-seven, range fourteen west," is hereby amended, by striking out the name of J. B. Churchill wherever it Change of commissioners.