

CHAPTER 6.

[Published January 30, 1864.]

AN ACT to legalize the proceedings of certain town meetings held in the towns of Medina and Dunn, in the county of Dane.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All the proceedings of the electors had in the town meeting of the town of Dunn, Dane county, held on the 15th day of January, A. D. 1864, and all the proceedings of the town meeting held in the town of Medina, Dane county, (held) on the 28th day of December, A. D. 1863, are hereby legalized, and the tax levied at each of the said meetings, for the purpose of paying bounties to volunteers in the military service of the United States, declared valid for all intents and purposes, the same as if all the forms and provisions of laws then and now in force in this state, relating to calling and conducting special town meetings for the purpose of levying taxes for the payment of bounties to volunteers, had been fully observed and complied with. Proceedings and tax legalized.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 28, 1864.
