CHAPTER 222.

[Published May 9, 1865.]

AN ACT to amend chapter 30 of the private and local laws of 1859, entitled "an act to amend 'an act to incorporate the village of Waukesha.'"

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Not applicable to gutters.

SECTION 1. Section twenty-six of chapter thirty of the private and local laws of 1859, is hereby amended, by adding thereto the following: "Provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to the making, paving or repairing any gutter in any street, highway or alley in said village, or to the levying or collecting any tax therefor."

Further powers of trustees.

SECTION 2. Section twenty-nine of said chapter thirty is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "The trustees of said village, in addition to other powers conferred on them by this act, may order the making, paving and repairing of gutters in any street, highway or alley in said village; and whenever they shall order any such gutter to be made, paved or repaired, or shall order sidewalks to be built or repaired upon any street, highway or alley in said village, they shall levy and cause to be collected such sum or sums as they may estimate to be necessary for such purpose or purposes, by tax upon all the real estate or lots fronting or bounding on that side of such street, highway or alley where such gutter is ordered to be made, paved or repaired, or where such sidewalk is ordered to be built or repaired, in equal proportions per foot of the front or width of such real estate or lots on such street, highway or alley; and in case such tax shall prove insufficient to pay the expense of making, paving or repairing such gutter, or
