

CHAPTER 136.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT to repeal chapter 491 of the general laws of 1865, entitled "an act to confer jurisdiction on the county court of Outagamie county."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 1. Chapter four hundred and ninety-one of the general laws of 1865 is hereby repealed.

When to take effect.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect at the expiration of the term of office of the present incumbent, and all suits and proceedings then pending in said county court shall forthwith be transferred to the circuit court for said county of Outagamie, and by virtue of this act shall be deemed to be pending therein, and shall thereafter be proceeded with, tried, determined and completed in the same manner as if originally commenced in or appealed to said circuit court.

Approved April 11, 1867.

CHAPTER 137.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT in relation to county superintendents of the poor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Supervisor not eligible as superintendent of poor.

SECTION 1. No member of any county board of supervisors in any county in which county superintendents of the poor are elected or chosen by the board of supervisors, shall be eligible to or hold the office of superintendent of the county poor; but this act shall not be construed to prevent the county board of supervisors from acting as such superintendents in any county where they are expressly authorized or required by law to act as such superintendents.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1867.
