

SECTION 3. The board of trustees are hereby authorized to discharge from the "home" any child of fifteen years of age or over, if in their opinion the interests of the institution require it, or if in their opinion such child is capable of self-support; but no child shall be discharged from said institution without the consent of the executive committee, and the executive committee shall not allow any parent or guardian to remove any child under fifteen years of age from the "home," unless the application for such removal shall be accompanied by a certificate of the chairman of the board of supervisors of the town in which such parent or guardian resides, showing that such parent or guardian is able to support and educate such child or children, or unless the regulations or interests of said institution require the discharge of certain children.

Discharge of children.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 11, 1867.

CHAPTER 169.

[Published April 20, 1867.]

AN ACT to regulate the mode of subdividing a section of land, as established by the United States survey.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever a surveyor is required to make a subdivision of a section of land, as established by the United States survey, he shall be governed by the laws of the United States on the subject of surveying the public lands, and the rules and regulations made in conformity thereto.

Laws to govern subdivisions.

SECTION 2. Sections 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 of chapter 120 of the general laws of 1862, and all acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

Repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1867.
