CHAPTER 22.

[Published March 6, 1867.]

AN ACT to authorize the county of Marathon to convey certain lands to the state, in satisfaction of certain indebtedness.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of Marathon, in behalf of said county, is hereby authorized to convey to the state of Wisconsin forty thousand five hundred and forty acres of land, situated in said county of Marathon; the said land to be taken from towns 26, in the south part of said county, and extending north until the whole amount shall be taken, in such distinct lots or parcels, and without exception, as the said county shall now hold Clerk of board to convey lands to state.

by virtue of tax deeds issued upon sales for delinquent taxes heretofore made.

Clerk to deliver tax certificates to secretary of state.

SECTION 2. The said clerk of the board of supervisors, in behalf of said county, is hereby further authorized to deliver over to the secretary of state, for the use and benefit of said state, all the outstanding tax certificates upon and against each tract or lot of land mentioned in section one of this act: provided, the said lands shall not be sold by said county for the delinquent tax of 1866, but the said clerk of the board of supervisors shall return said lands to the secretary of state.

To be received in payment of certain demand against county.

SECTION 3. The said lands and tax certificates so conveyed and delivered, shall be in full payment and satisfaction of the sum of twenty thousand two hundred and seventy-one and 34-100th dollars delinquent state tax due and owing from the said county of Marathon to the said state; and upon the due execution of said conveyance and delivery of said tax certificates, the state treasurer is hereby authorized to credit said county of Marathon the amount of said delinquent state tax.

Disposal of lands.

SECTION 4. The said lands so conveyed to the state shall be held and disposed of in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as swamp and overflowed lands, at the minimum price of seventy-five cents per acre: provided, no such lands shall be disposed of or sold until the expiration of one year from the passage of this act, at which time the said conveyance from said county to the state shall be conclusive evidence of an absolute title to said lands in the state, unless suit shall be instituted to invalidate the same within that time.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 5, 1867.
