CHAPTER 62.

[Published March 8, 1869.]

AN ACT to increase the number of county supervisors in the county of Green, and to provide for their election.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. At the first annual town meeting after the passage of this act, to-wit, 1869, the electors of the supervisors representing the even numbered district in said county shall elect two additional supervisors, whose term of office shall expire at the same time and who shall be elected in the same manner as the supervisor for such district is now elected, and the electors of the supervisors representing the odd numbered districts in said county shall elect two additional supervisors in each district, whose term of office shall expire at the same time and who shall be elected in the same manner as the supervisors for said districts are now elected, and at each succeeding general election thereafter for the election of county supervisors, three supervisors shall be elected for the term of two years in each supervisor district.

Number increased.

SECTION 2. The supervisors elected at the aforesaid town meeting shall meet with the county board of supervisors in the county of Green, at their first meeting after their election, and qualify by taking the oath of office as now provided by law in relation to county boards of supervisors, and shall thereby become members thereof, with all the powers and duties now conferred upon such county boards of supervisors.

Shall meet with county board at first meeting.

SECTION 3. All acts or parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act, so far as the same may relate to the county of Green, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 3, 1869.
