

CHAPTER 14.

[Published March 1, 1870.]

AN ACT to provide tax receipt stub books for town, city and village treasurers, and to repeal chapter 118 of the general laws of 1868, entitled "an act to authorize town, city and village treasurers to perform certain duties in reference to tax receipts and certificates."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Clerk of board shall prepare form.

SECTION 1. The clerk of the board of supervisors of each county in this state shall prepare a form, cause to be printed and furnish to each and every town, city and village treasurer of their respective counties, a book of tax receipts, with stubs to be a duplicate of the receipts for each current year.

Duty of treasurer in relation to receipts.

SECTION 2. It shall be duty of every town, city or village treasurer to use such receipts only as are provided for in section one of this act, and to enter in each receipt given by him for the payment of taxes, the name of the person, firm, company or corporation paying taxes, the date of issuing the receipt, the description of property upon which taxes are paid and the aggregate amount of taxes paid, which receipt shall be signed by the treasurer, and a duplicate thereof made upon the stub to be left in the book; and after noting the payment of said taxes upon the tax-roll, then to deliver said receipt to the person entitled thereto.

Shall deliver stub book to county treasurer.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the town, city or village treasurer, after having completed the collection of taxes for that year, to deliver said stub-books, together with the tax-roll, to the county treasurer, and the county treasurer shall compare the said stub-book with the said tax roll in every particular, as to the description of lands and other property upon which taxes have and have not been paid, and as to the amount of money received for taxes before his final settlement with said town, city or village treasurer, and within thirty days after the final settlement between the the county treasurer and the said town, city or village treasurer, the county treasurer shall deliver said stub-book over to the clerk of the board of supervisors to be by him filed and preserved in his office.

SECTION 4. Upon application and upon the payment of twenty-five cents each, the said clerk of the board of supervisors shall give a certified copy of said stubs, which shall be used as evidence in all cases, the same as the original stub or the original receipt. Clerk's fees for certified copy.

SECTION 5. Chapter 118 of the general laws of 1866 is hereby repealed. Repealed.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 26, 1870.
