

CHAPTER 27.

[Published March 8, 1870.]

AN ACT to amend section 100, chapter 13, revised statutes, entitled "of counties and county officers."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section 100, chapter 13, of the revised statutes, entitled "of counties and county officers," is hereby amended by adding to the end of said section 100, the following, to wit: And he shall also, as soon as may be after entering upon the duties of his office, and after the passage of this act, appoint some proper person deputy in every incorporated city or village in his county, when the inhabitants of such city or village shall exceed three thousand, and the person so appointed shall be a resident of the city or village in which he is appointed, and shall hold office during the pleasure of such sheriff; and as soon as a vacancy shall occur in the office of such deputy, or he become incapable of executing the same, another shall in like manner be appointed in his place, for whose official acts said sheriff shall be responsible, as in case of other deputies or under sheriffs.

Amended.

Sheriff shall appoint deputies.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 7, 1870.
