

CHAPTER 20.

[Published February 13, 1873.]

AN ACT relating to appeals from justices' judgments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

On dismissal of appeal, papers to be transmitted to the justice.

SECTION 1. Whenever any party to a judgment rendered by a justice of the peace shall appeal to the circuit court of the proper county, and the appeal shall, for any reason, be dismissed, the clerk of the appellate court shall, as soon as may be after the time shall have expired to appeal from the order of dismissal, transmit all the papers in the case on said appeal to the justice from whose judgment the appeal was taken ; and the said justice shall thereupon proceed to enforce the collection of said judgment in the same manner as though no appeal had been taken.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 11, 1873.
