

CHAPTER 205.

[Published March 23, 1874.]

AN ACT to amend section three of chapter 14 of the general laws of 1870, entitled an act to provide tax receipt stub-books for town, city and village treasurers, and to repeal chapter 118 of the general laws of 1866, entitled an act to authorize town, city and village treasurers to perform certain duties in reference to tax receipts and certificates.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three of chapter 14 of the general laws of 1870, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of each town, city and village in this state, each year, to compare the stub-book of receipts with the tax roll of his town, city or village, as to the description of land and other property upon which taxes have or have not been paid, and as to the amount of money received for taxes, and the said treasurer shall certify on such stub-book that he has made such examination, and that the stub-book and tax roll correspond, and the stub-book thus certified shall be returned with the tax roll to the county treasurer, who shall file such stub-book with the county clerk, to be by such clerk filed and preserved in his office.

Section amended.

Duty of town treasurers.

Shall return stub-book.

County clerk to present same

Approved March 10, 1874.

CHAPTER 206.

[Published March 24, 1874.]

AN ACT to authorize the town of Wrightstown, county of Brown, to borrow money.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of the town of Wrightstown, in the county of Brown, state of Wisconsin, are hereby authorized to borrow upon the faith and credit of said town a sum of money, not exceeding three thousand dollars, for the purpose of constructing a wagon bridge across the Fox river, in the village of

Board of supervisors authorized to borrow money—may issue town orders.