

CHAPTER 140.

[Published March 8, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend chapter twenty (20) of general laws of 1873, entitled "an act relating to appeal from justice's courts."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That section one (1) of chapter twenty (20) of the general laws of 1873, be amended by adding at the end of said section the following words; Provided, however, that the party obtaining a dismissal of such appeal shall recover costs against the appellant in the appellate court as on reversal or affirmance of a judgment therein. Amended.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 2, 1875.

CHAPTER 141.

[Published March 9, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend section three (3), and to repeal sections five (5), six (6), and seven (7), of chapter ten (10), of the charter of the city of Menasha, relating to the fire department.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three (3), of chapter ten (10), of the charter of the city of Menasha, is amended so as to read seven years, instead of ten years. The fire department shall have power to elect five fire wardens, one of whom shall be chief, and before entering on their respective duties, they shall execute a bond to the city of Menasha in the penal sum of one hundred (100) dollars for each warden, with two good sureties, and shall perform such duties as the chief engineer and chief fire warden may prescribe, and they may, at any time, enter into any building, house, store, barn, manufactory, or other inclosure, for the purpose of inspecting the same. It shall be the duty of the fire-wardens to inspect all buildings twice each Amended.
