

CHAPTER 203.

[Published March 17, 1875.]

AN ACT to provide for the revision of the statutes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Revisers to be appointed by justice of supreme court.

SECTION 1. The justices of the supreme court are hereby authorized to appoint three competent persons to collect and revise the general laws of this state, for the purpose of preparing a new edition of such laws for publication.

Work to be reported to legislature.

SECTION 2. The revisers appointed in pursuance of section one of this act, shall enter upon their work as soon as practicable, and when the whole work shall have been completed, the said revisers shall report the same to the next succeeding legislature.

Compensation of revisers.

SECTION 3. The revisers before mentioned shall receive such compensation for their services and such allowances for clerk-hire as the justices of the supreme court shall deem just and reasonable, to be audited by the secretary of state upon the written allowance of such justices, and paid out of the state treasury out of any moneys belonging to the general fund not otherwise appropriated.

In case reviser becomes incapacitated.

SECTION 4. In case any of the revisers become incapacitated by reason of sickness or other cause to perform their duties under this act, the justices of the supreme court are hereby authorized to appoint a suitable person to take the place of the person so incapacitated.

Printing.

SECTION 5. It shall be the duty of the state printer to do any and all printing for said revisers which may necessarily be required by them in the performance of their duties, but all orders for such printing shall be first approved by the justices of the supreme court.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1875.
