CHAPTER 61.

[Published March 1, 1875.]

AN ACT to authorize the regents of the University of Wisconsin to build an additional edifice for scientific purposes, and to appropriate money therefor.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. To enable the regents of the University of Wisconsin to build an additional edifice for scientific purposes upon the University grounds, there is hereby appropriated to said regents out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of eighty thousand dollars; provided, that not to exceed the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars shall be drawn from the state treasury or levied and collected as a part of the state tax during the year 1875. Appropriation.

SECTION 2. The regents of the University of Wisconsin are authorized to erect such additional edifice at such time and after such plan as they may deem expedient; and the treasurer of such board is authorized to pay out of the money as appropriated by section one of this act, as the same may be required for such purpose, upon such vouchers as the board of regents may direct. This act shall be so construed as to limit the liability of the state on account of the erection of such edifice, to the amount herein appropriated. Regents authorized to erect additional edifices.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 25, 1875.
