CHAPTER 322.

AN ACT to amend section seven of chapter three hundred and fifteen of the private and local laws of 1869, entitled "An act to incorporate the Madison Relief Association."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended.

Payment of relief.

Liability of directors.

SECTION 1. Section seven of chapter three hundred and fifteen of the private and local laws of 1869, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Said association, in its corporate name, shall have power to enter into contract with any person who is or may hereafter become a member of said association, agreeing to pay upon the decease of such member, to any person in whose favor the application is made, or to any person in whose favor the insurance is assigned by the applicant, or to any person designated by the last will and testament of such deceased member, such sum or sums as shall be fixed by the by-laws of said association, and the board of directors, and each of them, shall be personally liable thereto to the amount of the money or assets remaining unexpended in the treasury, and they shall not be otherwise personally liable.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 20, 1878.
