

maintenance shall be charged to and paid out of the general city fund of said city of Milwaukee, in the same manner that the street approaches are now paid, and that the damages, costs and charges arising from the change of grade incidental to the construction of said viaduct and approaches, shall be assessed in the manner now provided in section eight of chapter seven of sub-chapter one hundred and eighty-four of the laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four: pro-Provido. vided, however, that the excess of the said damages, costs and charges over the benefits assessed, shall be charged to and paid out of the general city fund of said city of Milwaukee; and provided further, that no damages or benefits shall be assessed on the lots or lands of the said railway company within the line of said abutments, produced east and west therefrom.

SECTION 3 All acts or parts of acts conflicting with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 1, 1878.

[No. 193, A.]

[Published March 5, 1878.]

CHAPTER 58.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the State Hospital for the Insane.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The superintendent, officers and employes of the hospital for the insane, located in the county of Dane, are hereby constituted police officers for said hospital, and the grounds and lands connected with and belonging to said hospital, and as such police officers, shall have power and authority to summarily arrest all persons within said hospital or on the premises, out houses, grounds, and land belonging to the same, who shall be guilty of noisy, boisterous and disorderly conduct, or improper reveling, or fighting, immoderate drinking, drunkenness, or of indecent exposure of person, lewd, wanton and obscene conduct, or of vulgar and obscene language, or who shall be guilty of any other offense against the laws of the state, or of the rules and regulations governing said hospital for the insane. Powers of officers.

Offenders may be arrested.

SECTION 2. Whenever the said superintendent or any of the officers or employes of the said hospital shall find any person or persons in said hospital, or on the grounds and premises belonging to the same, creating any disturbance, or who shall be guilty of any such offense, or of vagrancy, or any idle persons who shall refuse to leave said premises when requested so to do by said superintendent, officers or employes, the said superintendent shall have full power and authority to arrest all such offenders and convey such offenders to any justice of the peace of said county, or before any court of competent jurisdiction, having power and jurisdiction to try such offenders so arrested, and such superintendent, officers or employes shall cause the proper complaint to be made before such court against such offenders, and the court before whom such offenders are brought shall then proceed to hear, try and determine the charge against such prisoners, according to the laws of the state.

Hospital officials to have
same authority
as possessed by constables and police officers.

SECTION 3. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, the said superintendent, officers and employes, while acting as such police officers, shall have the same authority and power possessed by constables and police officers under the laws of this state, and they may make complaints for any offense committed in the hospital or on the hospital grounds, execute warrants, commit to jail, and have all the rights any privileges of police officers, for the purpose and under the limitations prescribed by this act.

Penalty for disorderly conduct

SECTION 4. Any person or persons who shall commit any such offense within said hospital or on said hospital premises, or who shall be guilty of riotous, noisy, boisterous and disorderly conduct, or of fighting, immoderate drinking, or of being intoxicated on such grounds, or of any other offense under this act, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one dollar and not exceeding fifty dollars, together with costs, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than two days nor more than sixty days.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 1, 1878.