CHAPTER 109.

AN ACT to authorize the town of Luck, Polk county, to borrow money.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The commissioners of public lands are hereby authorized to loan a portion of the trust funds of the state, not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars, to the town of Luck, county of Polk, in this state, and the said town is hereby authorized to borrow a sum not exceeding the amount above named, of the said commissioners, and to issue to said commissioners certificates of the indebtedness so contracted. Said indebtedness shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum, and said interest shall be paid annually, together with not less than one-tenth of the principal sum, till the whole is paid.

Amount of loan

Payment of interest and principal.

SECTION 2. The secretary of state shall each year, until the whole loan be repaid, furnish the county clerk of said county the amount which will be due from such town, at the same time that he furnishes to that officer a statement of the state tax. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, on receiving such statement, to include the amount due from such town in his apportionment of the state taxes to the town, but it shall be carried out in a separate column. And the town clerk of said town shall charge such amount on his tax roll, and the tax shall be collected by the town treasurer and paid with the state tax to the county treasurer, who shall pay it over to the state treasurer with the state taxes.

Amount due on loan to be collected and paid with state taxes

SECTION 3. And it is further provided that the said town of Luck, in the county of Polk, shall never, during the period for which said loan shall remain unpaid, become indebted or contract debts for a greater amount, including debts heretofore contracted as well as that hereinbefore referred to, than five per cent. on the value of taxable property in such town, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes

Indebtedness limited.
