CHAPTER 116.

AN ACT to provide for the rebuilding of a portion of the institution for the education of the deaf and dumb, and to appropriate the sum of money therein named.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The board of trustees of the Wisconsin institute for the education of the deaf and dumb is hereby authorized and empowered to erect, in accordance with the plans presented to the present legislature, and already approved by the joint committee on charitable and penal institutions, buildings to take the place of those recently destroyed by fire. For that purpose said trustees are hereby authorized to make and enter into such contracts and agreements as they may find necessary: provided, however, that such contracts and agreements shall not involve the expenditure of a greater sum of money than is appropriated by this act: provided, also, that said trustees shall make no Board of trustees to contract for rebuilding institute.

Contractors to give bonds.

contract for the construction of said buildings without requiring and obtaining good, ample and sufficient security by bond or otherwise; that all the buildings contemplated by the plans adopted by the said committee of this legislature shall be constructed and completed at a cost within the sum named in this act.

Proposals to be advertised for.

SECTION 2. The said trustees shall, before making any contract or agreement for the erection of such buildings, advertise for proposals for the erection thereof in at least three daily papers published within this state—one in the city of Milwaukee, one in the city of Madison, and one in the city of La Crosse—for at least four weeks prior to the time of letting such contracts. Such advertisements shall state the time and place for receiving such proposals, and the amount and kind of bonds required for the faithful performance of the contracts within the time limited therefor. Such trustees shall contract with the lowest responsible bidder, who shall in each case be required to give good and sufficient bond or bonds for the faithful performance of such contract; but said trustees shall have the right to reject all proposals received by them if in their opinion the interests of the state require it.

Board of charities and reform to have supervision.

SECTION 3. The state board of charities and reform shall have the general supervision of such building, and of the perfection of any necessary details in such plans or specifications so adopted. And said trustees shall make no change in any of the details of such plans or specifications without the concurrence of said state board of charities and reform.

Appropriation, $70,000.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of seventy thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purposes of this act, five thousand dollars of which amount shall be used for the purchase of new boilers and furniture: provided, that the money hereby appropriated shall be drawn from the state treasury no faster than said work progresses.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 8, 1880.
