CHAPTER 191.

AN ACT to amend section three thousand three hundred and sixty-eight of chapter one hundred and forty-five of the revised statutes of 1878, in relation to appeals from justice courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section three thousand three hundred and sixty-eight of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3368. If either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment rendered in such action, he may appeal within ten days to the circuit court or other court having jurisdiction of such appeal, as in other cases tried before justices of the peace; but no such appeal by a defendant shall stay proceedings on such judgment, unless the appellant shall, within said ten days, execute and file with the justice his undertaking to the plaintiff, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the justice, to the effect that the appellant will pay all costs of such appeal which may be awarded against him, and abide the order of the court therein, and pay all rent and other damages justly accruing to the plaintiff during the pendency of such appeal. Upon taking such appeal and filing such undertaking, all further proceedings in the case shall be thereby stayed, and the appellate court shall thereafter issue all needful writs and processes to carry out any judgment which may be rendered thereon in such appellate court.

Appeal not to stay proceedings.

When proceedings may be stayed.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1880.

CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT to provide for service of process upon transportation companies, and the appointment of an attorney therefor within this state.

Attorney for each county wherein business is done, to be appointed.

SECTION 1. Every association, company or corporation, domestic or foreign, not duly organized and incorporated under the laws of this state formed for the purpose of transportation of passengers or property either by boats, vessels, rail, stages, or other means, doing or desiring to do any business in this state, before doing any such business, shall first deposit in his office with the clerk of the circuit court of each county in the state in which they propose to do or shall do such business, a written instrument duly signed by the president and secretary thereof, and under their seal, if they shall have such officers and seal, otherwise by the principal officers thereof, and therein appoint an attorney to reside in this state, and have an office therein, specifying his place of residence and office, upon whom and where any summons, notice, pleading or process of any court of this state or in any action therein, may be served, and shall therein stipulate that any service of any such summons, notice, pleading or process upon any such attorney, or in his absence at his said office, in any action brought against it in this state, upon any cause of action arising out any business or transaction in this state, shall be accepted irrevocably as a valid service upon such association, company or corporation. Unless another attorney shall be subsequently appointed with like authority in his stead, such authority shall be continued unrevoked while any liability remains outstanding against said association, company or corporation in this state, and such an appointment shall not be revoked
