CHAPTER 212.

AN ACT to amend section nine hundred and fourteen of the revised statutes, relating to taxes levied by village boards.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Corporation tax not to exceed one per centum.

Question of levy may be submitted to voters.

Duty of village clerk.

SECTION 1. Section nine hundred and fourteen of chapter forty of the revised statutes, is hereby amended so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows: The village board shall, on or before the fifteenth day of October in each year, by resolution to be entered of record, determine the amount of corporation taxes to be levied and assessed on the taxable property in such village for the current year, which shall not exceed in any one year two per centum of the assessed valuation of such property. Before levying any tax for any specified purpose exceeding one per centum of the assessed valuation aforesaid, the village board shall, and in all other cases may, in its discretion, submit the question of levying the same to the village electors at any general or special election, by giving ten days' notice thereof prior to such election by publication in a newspaper published in the village, if any, and, if there be none, then by posting notices in three public places in said village, setting forth in such notices the object and purposes for which such taxes are to be raised, and the amount of the proposed tax. On or before the first day of November in each year, the village clerk shall deliver to the town clerk a copy of all such resolutions, certified under his hand and corporate seal. If such village be situated in two or more towns, he shall further certify how much of such tax is to be raised in each, according to the proportion established and certified to him by the board of town assessors and trustees mentioned in last preceding section.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 12, 1880.
